✦ About Me

I am an emotionally invested and passionate individual who brings heart and commitment to whatever I do. Currently studying with a strong focus on technology and development, I am very much interested in web technologies, coding, and innovative problem-solving. I work best in team-based environments, eager to learn and grow while infusing a dash of warmth and authenticity into whatever I do. With skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Python, and Flask, I'm on a beautiful journey of turning dreams into digital realities.
